

Encore Boston Harbor To Seek Legal Action Against Room Occupancy Violators

EVERETT, MA (September 4, 2020) — To further ensure the health and safety of its guests and employees, Encore Boston Harbor will pursue legal action against any guest who fails to pay fines for exceeding occupancy limits for its rooms or suites. Encore Boston Harbor previously announced that it is charging a cleaning fee of $500 per person in excess of the occupancy limits up to $3,000.

New protocols include:

- A maximum of four people in any hotel room, and a maximum of eight people in a two-bedroom suite;
- All supplies taken to guest rooms monitored to ensure that there are no party materials or excessive quantities of food and beverages;
- Surveillance utilized to monitor hotel hallways and elevator banks to ensure safe physical distancing and room occupancy;
- For any gatherings of more than four people in a hotel room and eight people in a two-bedroom suite, a cleaning fee of $500 per person in excess of the occupancy limits up to $3,000 will be issued and all parties evicted;
- Increased security personnel stationed at the hotel elevator banks to ensure only registered guests have access to hotel rooms and that no more than four people are in an elevator at any given time; and
- Security personnel increasing their patrol of hotel floors throughout the night.

All Encore Boston Harbor employees have been thoroughly trained in new health and safety protocols. Encore Boston Harbor's Health and Safety Plan was created in consultation with leading public health professionals in addition to MGC requirements and recommendations from the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and the Massachusetts Department of Public Health. The full plan can be viewed on encorebostoninfo.com.
